The park is open to the public for picnicking, playground and walks seven days a week.
Memorial Day Weekend - Labor Day

All information subject to change without notice.

Parking

There are 2 parking lots at Midway: a gravel lot and a grass lot. Access to the Picnic Shelters is through the gravel lot on a dirt access road. Please unload and return your vehicle to the main lots. Vehicles not parked in a lot or a designated legal parking spot are subject to tow. For your safety, PLEASE use the crosswalks from the parking lots to the rides area.

Boat Docking

Coming by water? We have free day use boat dockage available on a first come, first serve basis. Available Mid-June through Labor Day.

Food

There is food for purchase by our park concessionaire. You are also welcome to bring family picnic baskets on your outing and use picnic grills at no charge. All park grills are charcoal grills. You must supply all equipment necessary to use grills. This includes charcoal, lighters, lighter fluid and utensils.

Gift Shop

Don't forget to take home some additional memories from Midway! Stop by the Gift Shop located in the Hippodrome near the concessions and restrooms.

Museum

Check out Midway's amazing history! See an original Dodge 'em car, check out a toboggan from the old water slide, even let your little one take a ride on Champion, everyone's favorite horse. So much interesting history to see! Located between the gift shop and the concessions

GROUPS: Parties/Reunions/& Others

Group Permits

Under NYS Park Regulations (Section 372.7 (1) (1), Groups of over 25 are required to have a permit. Please contact the park if you are planning to have a group of more than 25 people for an outing or picnic at Midway. There's also a discount available for groups purchasing more than 25 wristbands for Regular Operating Days!
